Gifted and talented checklist for teachers Things this child has done

The following is a checklist of characteristics of gifted young children. The examples after each item are there to help you to understand that item. A child may not show all of the examples given and they may exhibit the item characteristic in ways not listed. Indicate how much you think this child is like the item by using the scale below each item. Mark strongly agree (SA) to strongly disagree (SD). Fill in one circle for each item. If you are unclear or haven't noticed how this child compares to an item, fill in the Unsure or don't know circle. Use the space below the item for examples concerning the child, add as many details as you can remember. Be as specific as possible in describing the child's interests and accomplishments. The space is small, so please feel free to add extra pages of stories or examples to tell us more. If you can share copies of this child's creative work, we would be delighted to have them. Use additional pages to describe anything you think is important about this child that we have not asked about.

An example:

4. May not always display their advanced understanding in everyday situations.

(e.g. becomes cranky or non-compliant when fatigued or stressed; playground behaviour may not reflect their verbal reasoning about the same situations; may be frustrated with their ability to meet their own high expectations)

5. Uses advanced vocabulary.

(e.g. correctly uses vocabulary and phrasings adults would expect from older children; surprises adults and children with big words or phrases they use; likes complex communication and conversations)

6. Reads, writes, or uses numbers in advanced ways.

(e.g. reads earlier than most children or if learns to read at the same time as most children, does so very quickly; likes to read rapidly to get the gist of a story even though some words are skipped or mispronounced; interest in copying or using letters, words or numbers; uses computational skills earlier than others.

An example:

7. Advanced play interests and behaviours.

(e.g. exhibits play interests that resemble those of older children; likes to play board games designed for older children, teens or adults; more apt to be interested in cooperative play, complex play situations or sophisticated play activities)

8. Shows unusually intense interest and enjoyment when learning about new things. (e.g. spends long periods of time exploring interesting new things; listens for long periods of time to stories and conversations; retells events and stories in great detail; entertains self for long periods of time; shows unwavering attention sometimes to the point of stubbornness; sits patiently when reading or listening to books)

9. Has an advanced sense of humour or sees incongruities as funny.

(e.g. is humorous in speech, social interactions, art or story telling; make jokes, puns, plays on words; see humor in situations, even ones against him or her, and laughs at the situation)

10. Understands things well enough to teach others.

(e.g. likes to play school with other children, dolls or stuffed animals; talks like an 'expert' or likes to discuss certain topics a lot; explains ideas to adults when he or she doesn't think the adult understands very well)

11. Is comfortable around older children and adults.

(e.g. craves for attention from adults; likes to be with older children and adults; listens to or joins in adult conversations; often plays with and is accepted by older children)

An example:

12. Shows leadership abilities.

(e.g. has a verbal understanding of social situations; sought out by other children for play ideas; adapts his or her own words and expectations to needs or skill level of playmates; may be seen as bossy; uses verbal skills to deal with conflicts or influence other children)

An example:

13. Is resourceful and improvises well.

(e.g. makes ingenious or functional things from LEGO or other building toys; uses toys in unique or non-traditional ways; plays with or carries on conversations with imaginary friends; makes up believable endings to stories)

14. Shows logical and metacognitive skills in managing own learning.

(e.g. understands game rules quickly; learns from mistakes in playing games; sees errors or losses as learning experiences rather than failures; monitors difficulty of task to push self to more challenging levels)

An example:

15. Uses imaginative methods to accomplish tasks.

(e.g. presents unique arguments in order to convince others to allow him or her to do or get things; finds imaginative ways to get out of doing things they don't want to do; curious with a high energy level that is goal directed)

16. Use the rest of this page or its back to tell us anything you think is important about this child that we have not asked about. Please feel free to add any information you think might be useful in giving us a clear picture of what the child has done.
